

Join our new programme of free teaching sessions covering the essentials of end of life care.

The sessions will be held fortnightly, using Project ECHO technology. This means that you can join from the comfort of your own workplace.

Share ideas and best practice

Network with other healthcare professionals

Join the learning loop

Join meetings from your desk

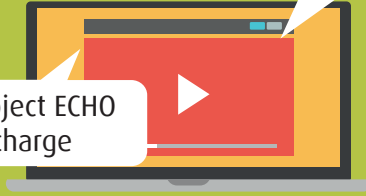

Who should attend: Community nurses, paramedics, Hospital staff from MEHT, Southend Hospital, Basildon Hospital, NELFT, EPUT, Primary care and Care Home staff. All attendees must be from within the mid and south Essex STP footprint.

You will need a computer, webcam and a broadband connection capable of running a video, to be able to join the meetings. Farleigh's IT team can support you to source equipment if needed.

Webcam

Joining Project ECHO is free of charge

Broadband connection

First cohort: 31.5.19; 14.6.19; 25.6.19; 9.7.19; 23.7.19; 7.8.19;
Second cohort: 21.8.19; 4.9.19; 19.9.19; 2.10.19; 16.10.19; 30.10.19.
Times: 14.00 – 15.30 hours

Topics covered:

Session 1: Holding difficult end of life conversations

Session 2: Co-ordinating care at end of life

Session 3: Understanding the legal position of the DNACPR form

Session 4: Identifying the dying phase

Session 5: Managing end of life symptoms and anticipatory prescribing

Session 6: Managing pain and prescribing opioids

The course is free and certificates of attendance will be given to attendees

If you would like to book a place or to know more about project ECHO at Farleigh, please contact Sue Griffith.

Telephone: 01245 455489 email: sue.griffith@farleighhospice.org

The mid and south Essex Local Workforce Action Board and Health Education England are using technology to enable a greater number of staff to participate in fully funded learning. This innovative way of learning will improve the way we deliver end of life care.

Mid & South Essex
Local Workforce Action Board

Health Education England

It is because you care that we can

www.farleighhospice.org

Registered charity no 284670

